

LOUIE FINDS A CREDIT CARD

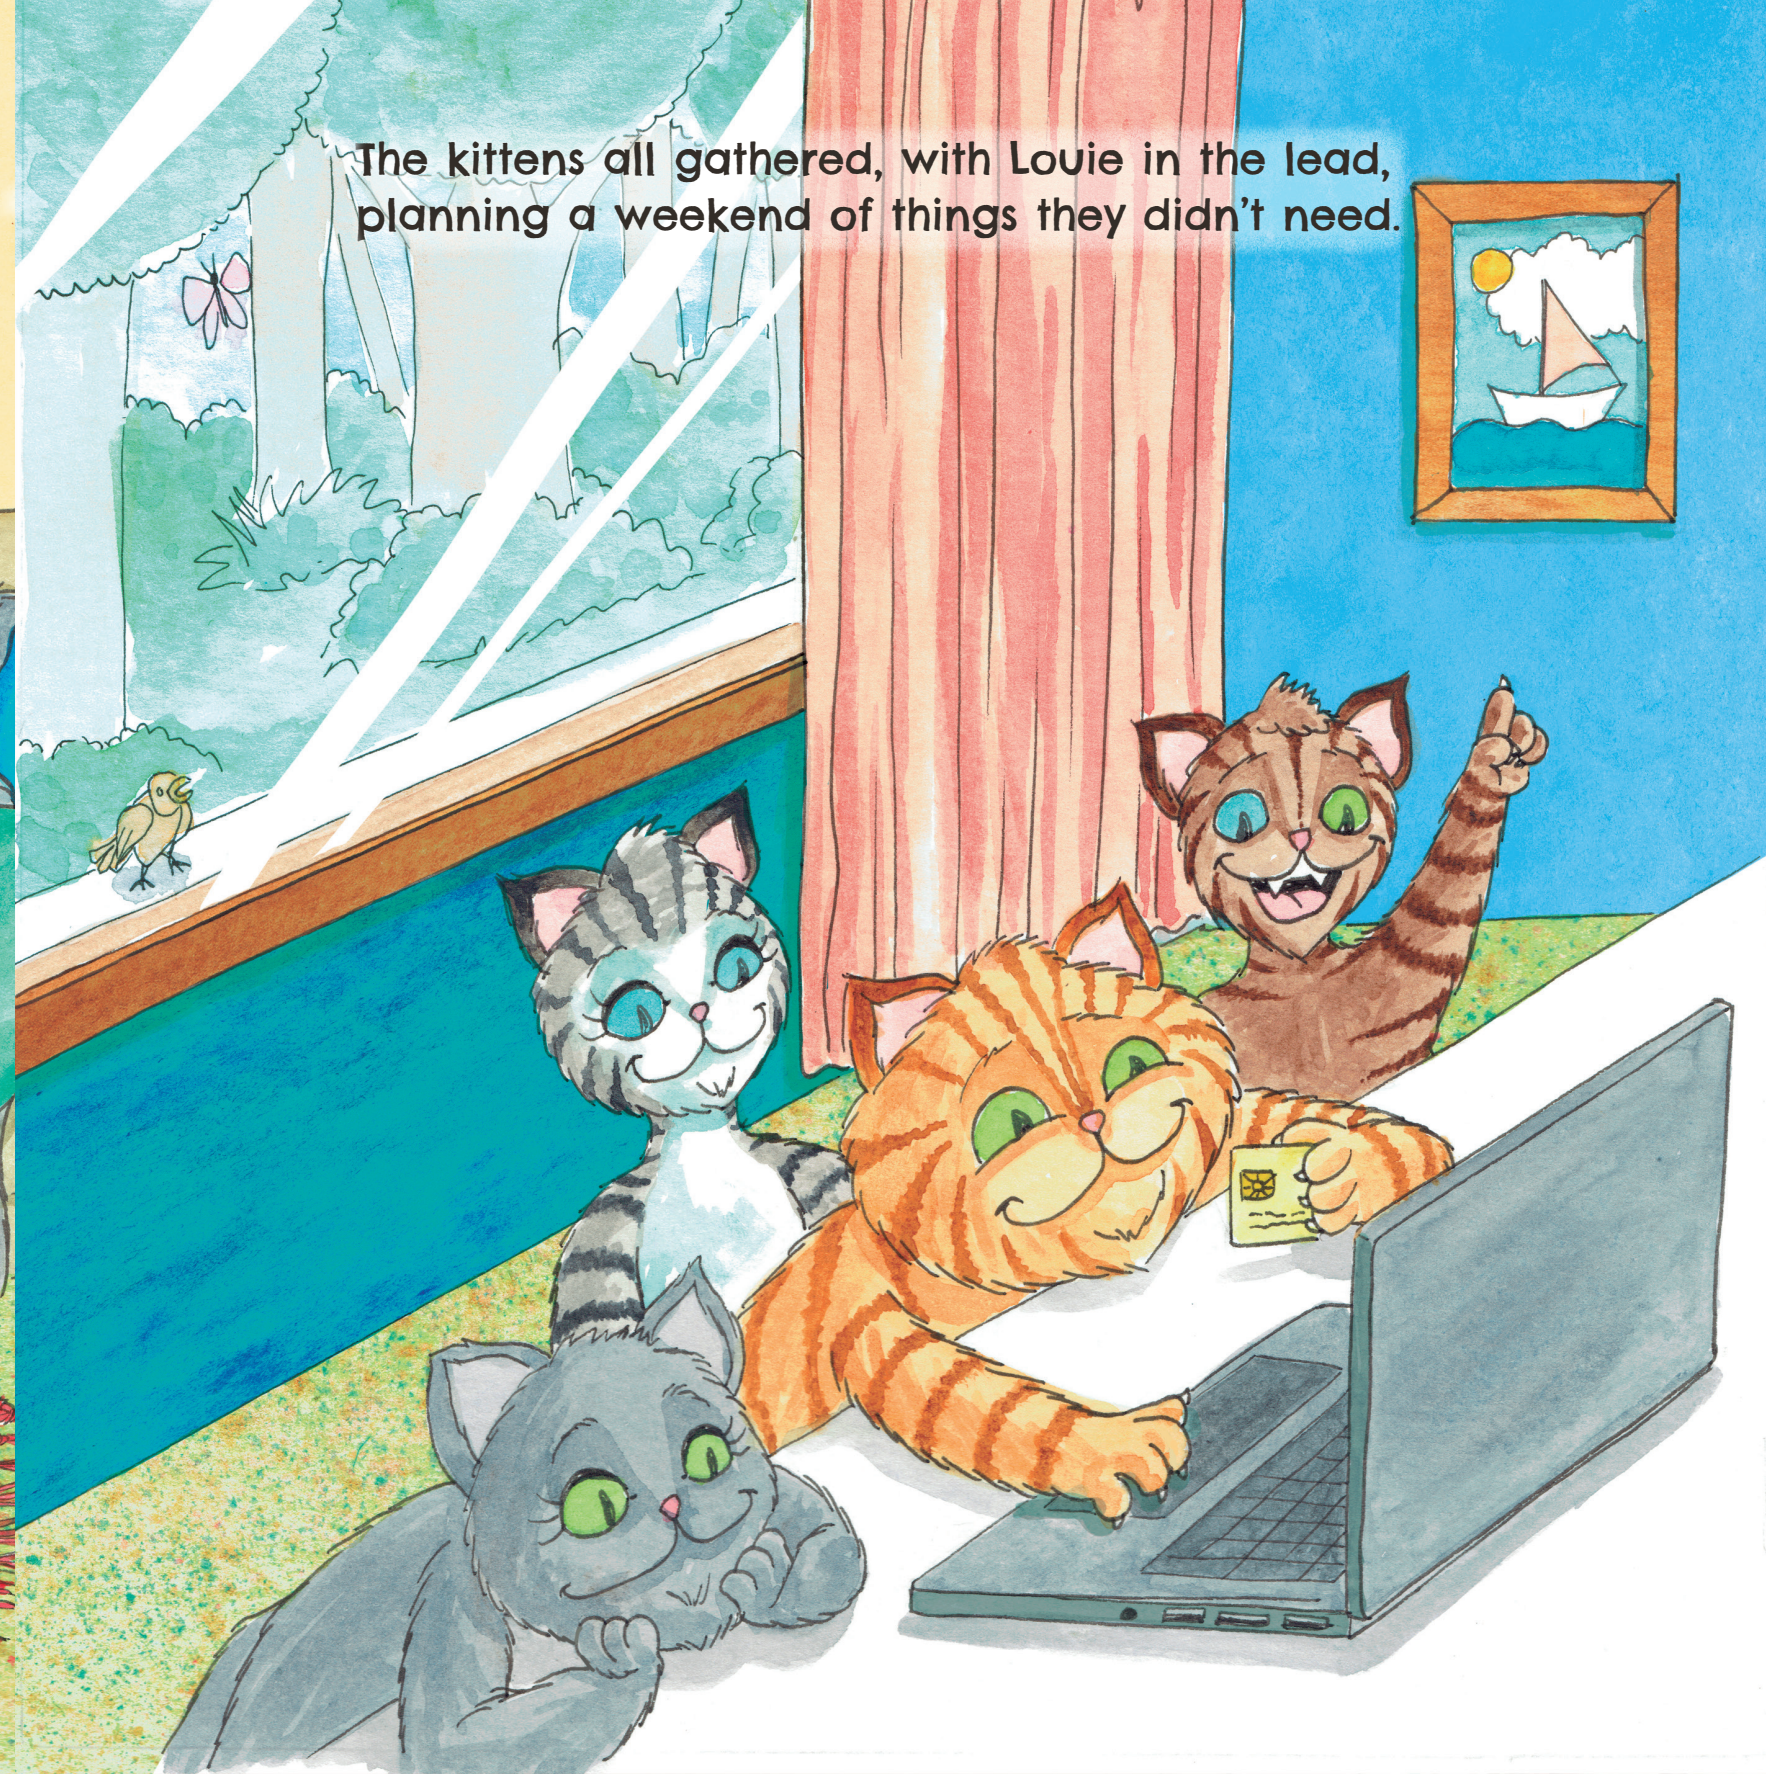

Written by Abigail Lindquist
Illustrated by Veronica Rosado

Mother went on holiday, and while she was away, Louie found a credit card. Oh, what a lucky day!

The kittens all gathered, with Louie in the lead, planning a weekend of things they didn't need.

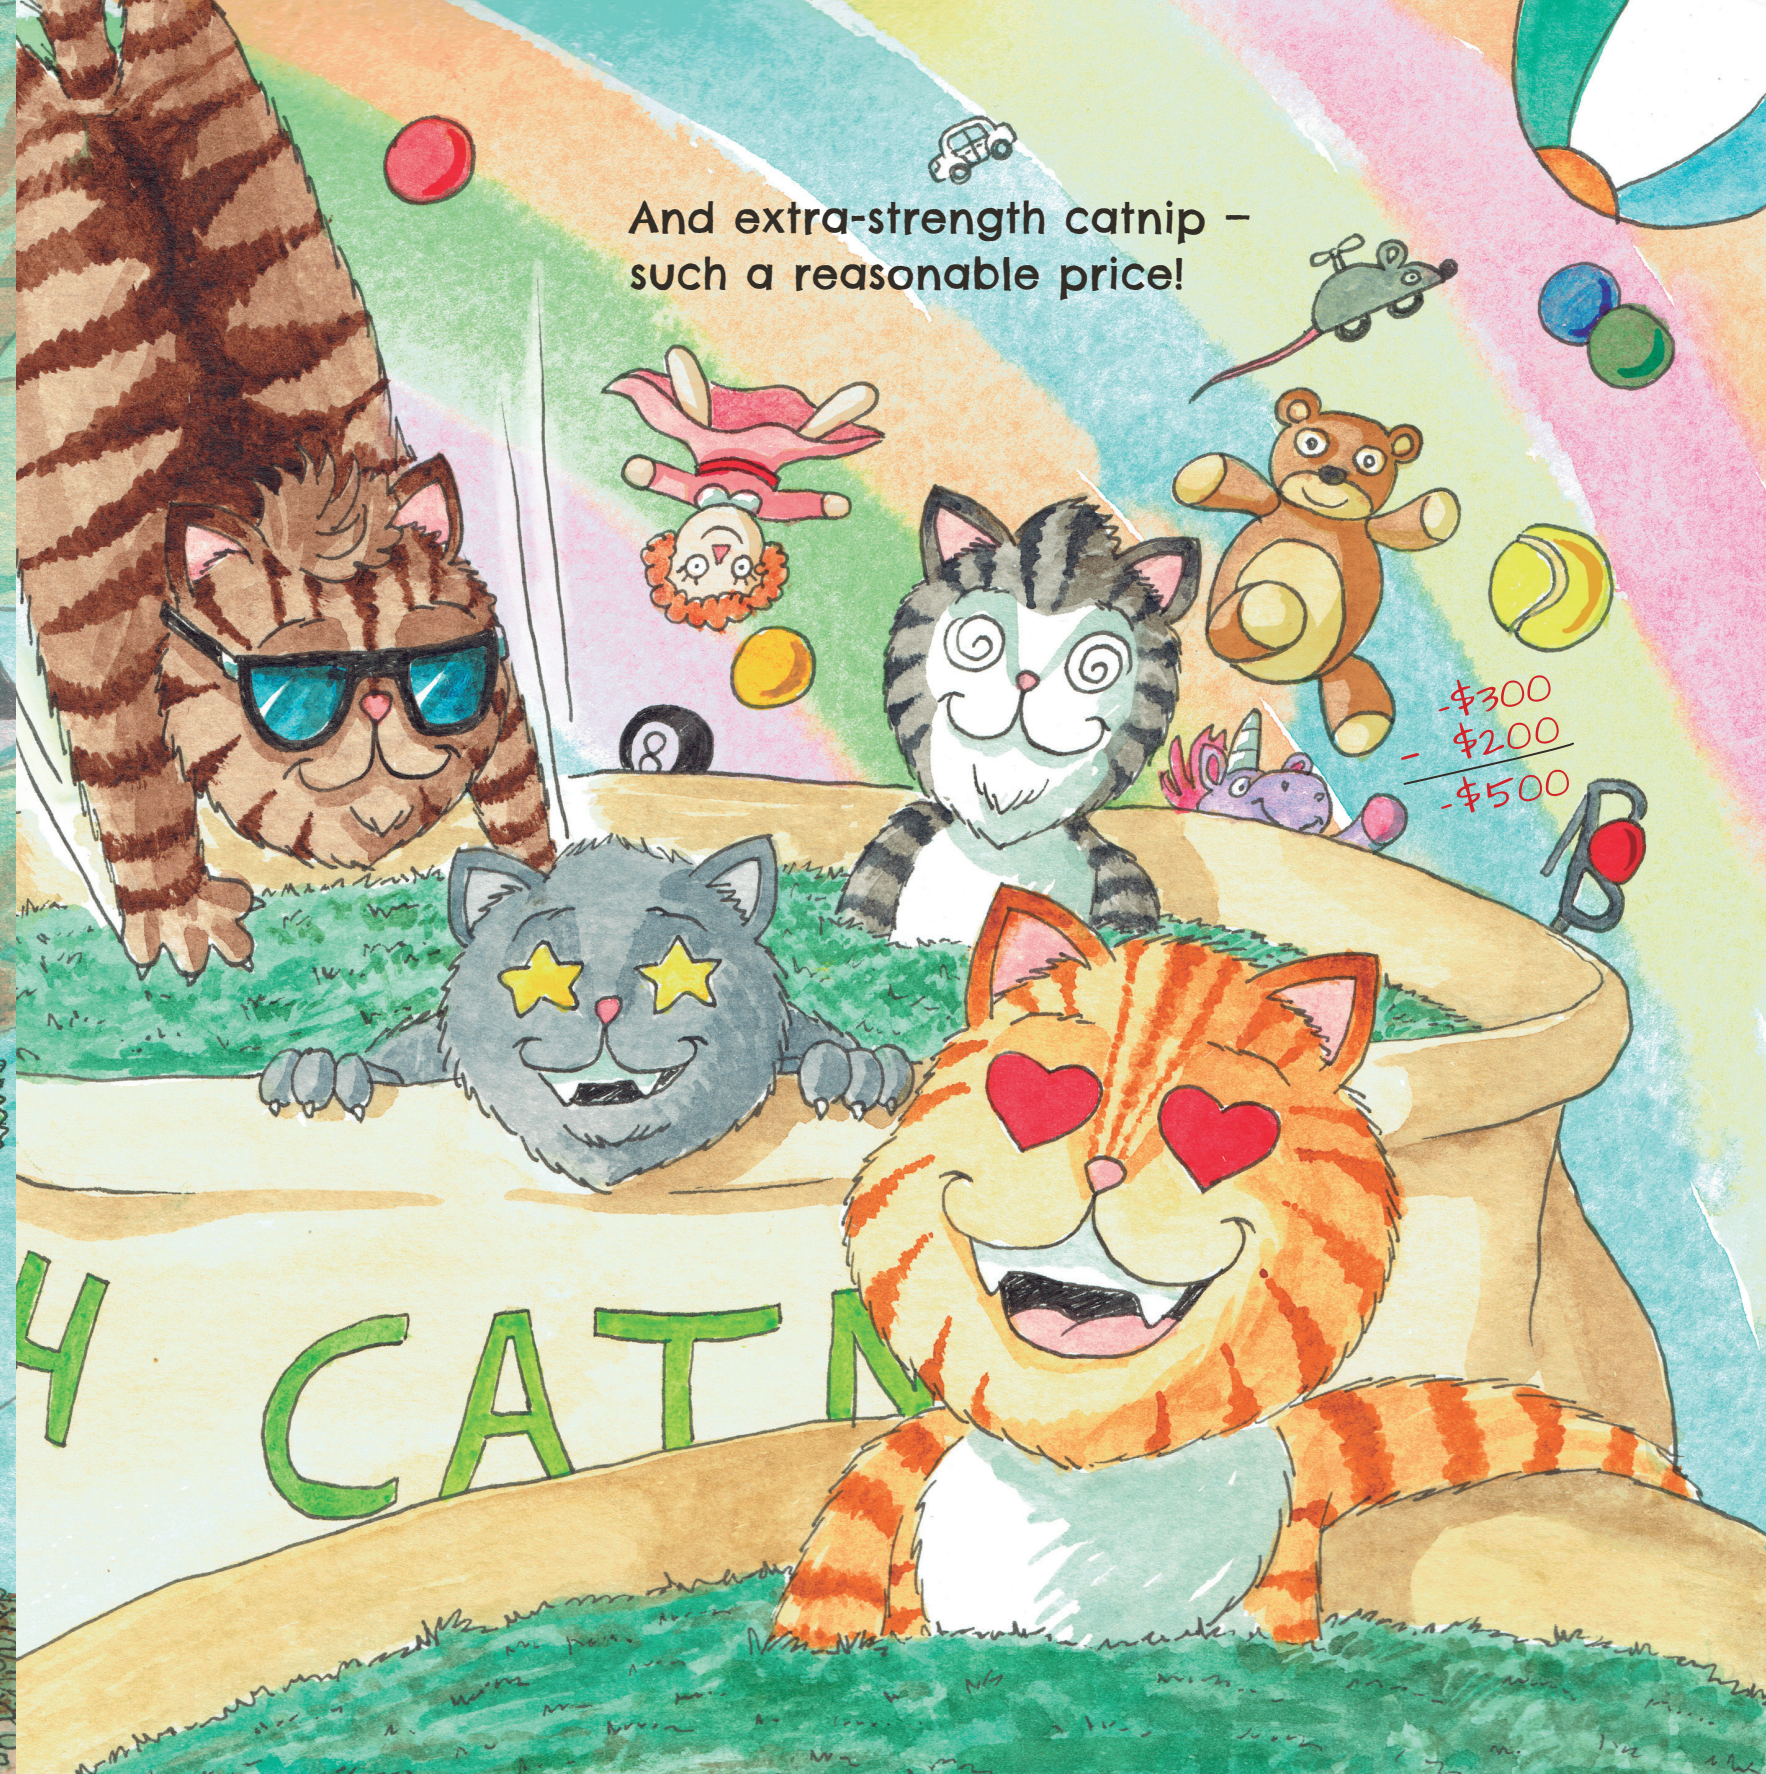

A couple of fish to perk them up sounded rather nice.

$0
- $300
- $300

And extra-strength catnip – such a reasonable price!

$300
- $200
- $500

Y CATN

Crammed on the couch with late-night TV,
Louie and the kittens went on a shopping spree.

Two litters of mice, and cat toys galore.
Fifty yarn balls and laser light decor.

Large remote cars and a pit full of balls.
More friends were needed, so they made some calls.

They pounced on feathers and guzzled rich milk.
Some lounged on cat beds draped in pure silk.

~~-$500~~
~~-$3,000~~
-$3,500